FULTON, N.Y. - Police say a 51-year-old school bus driver died after falling from a moving bus outside a central New York school.

Fulton police say Brenda Phillips of Oswego was standing in the stairwell of a Golden Bus Service bus when she fell through the doors and hit her head on the pavement.

The incident happened about 2 p.m. Wednesday at Fulton Junior High School. Police say another driver was driving the bus with Phillips and two other bus drivers on it. They were having a conversation while driving around the school's circular driveway.
