

Pregnant bus driver taken to hospital after student hit by a car

Last Update: 12/07 11:42 am

BRANDON -- A student crossing the street was hit by a car while trying to get on his school bus, according to the Hillsborough Sheriff's Office.

Investigators say 14 year old Lewis Oliveras was crossing the street and Bryan Road and Bryan Manor Drive when the student was hit by a car driven by another student at 6:48 am this morning.

The bus was stopped with its lights flashing. Two other students who crossed before him made in onto the bus OK

Oliveras was taken to Tampa General Hospital but is expected to be OK.

The driver of the car, 17 year old Carolina Audi is a student at King High School. Investigators say she did not stop for the bus and may be cited for failure to yield to a school bus.

The bus driver, Lana Bryant, witnessed the crash and called 911. Bryant is 8 months pregnant was taken to Brandon Hospital as a precaution.
